FACULTY AND STAFF

Dale Burden
Pastor

Perhaps, Gateway's greatest asset over the years has been our dedicated faculty and staff. A multitude of lives have been touched by their ministry. Many boys and girls have come to know Jesus as their personal Lord and Savior. Christian students from good, godly homes have been taught how to serve Christ better. Lives have been comitted to the Lord and hearts changed. We the students of Gateway appreciate this year's faculty and staff for their part in our lives. Thank you for investing your life in others.

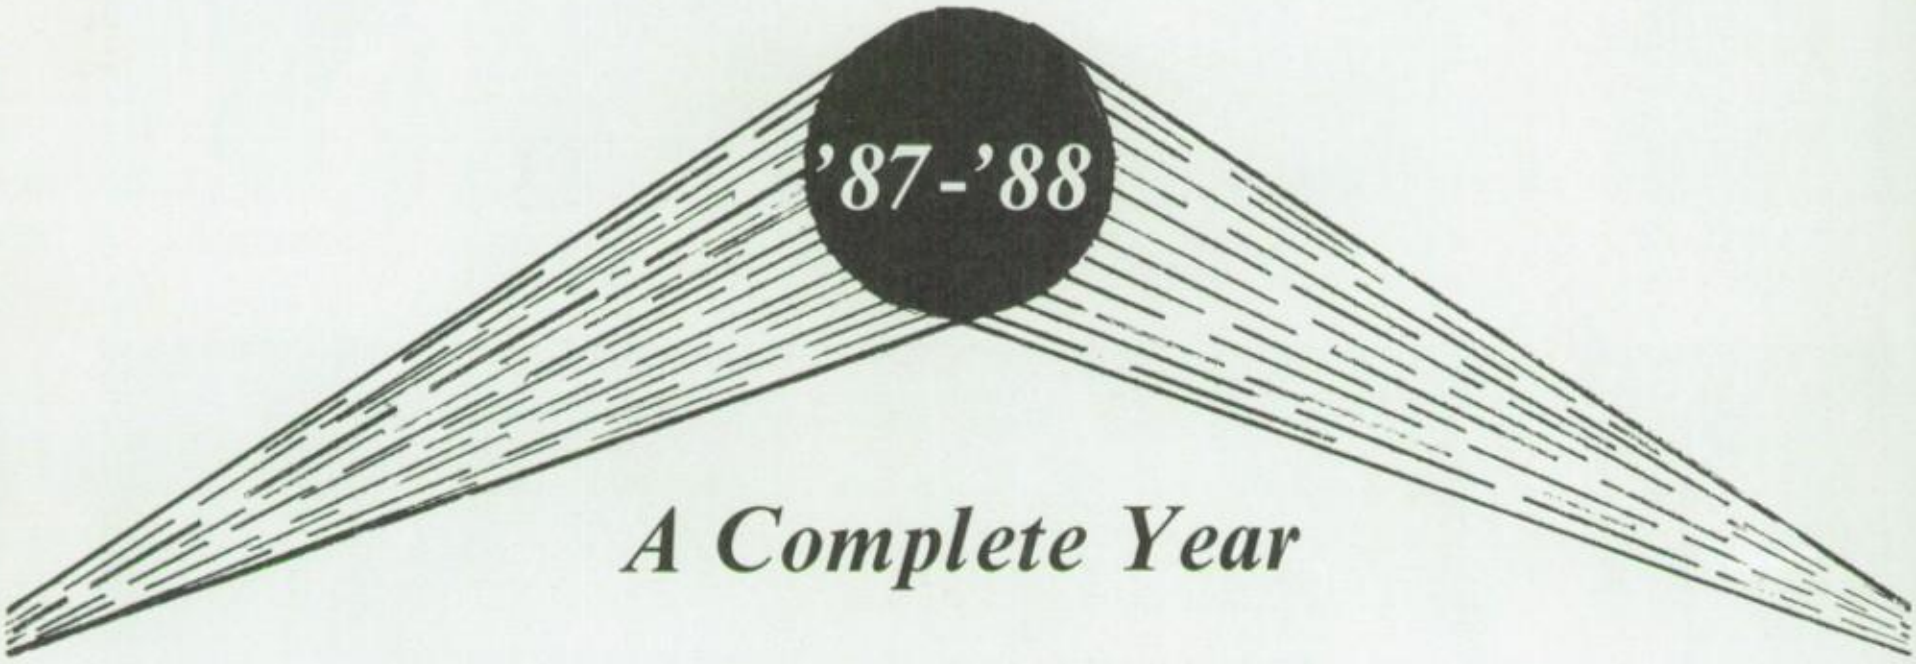
IN THE "Spotlight" OF COMPLETION



A Complete Year

This has been a complete year in many ways. '87-'88 has been jam-packed full of Learning, Fun, Excitement, Spirit, Activities, and Spiritual Growth.

A Complete Student Body

Gateway started this school year with 360 students. 360 — The number of degrees in a full, complete circle. Each student had a part in making this year a well-rounded success.

A Complete Education

Twelve years ago American Christian School relocated to new property and facilities in Virginia Beach and became Gateway Christian School. That year's First Graders completed their education at Gateway this Spring as they graduated from High School — The Class of '88. Walker Lambert, Ernie Spinella, and Danny Williams were part of that original First Grade Class. Their education at Gateway is now complete.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Jenny Anthony, being of questionably sound mind and totally shot body, do hereby bequeath Beth Powell a lifetime supply of strawberry chews, to the upcoming freshman class "The Jones Experience," and to ALL the teachers at Gateway, my love and sincere appreciation.

I, Stefan Bryant, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Heidi Fisher the position of chapel pianist and also first place position in SACS piano. To the Juniors, I leave my thanks for a great Junior-Senior. To my sister, I leave the challenge of high school — make the most of it. I leave to the '88-'89 yearbook staff the challenge, responsibility, hardships, and pride of making a yearbook — do your best. To my teachers and Gateway, I leave my sincere appreciation for being CHRISTIAN.

I, Amy Czuk, hereby do leave the Juniors my thanks for a most commemorative Junior-Senior. To Jacob Brackett I leave my love and thanks in all he has done for me. To my brother Jeff, I leave the ability to work hard in school and to keep his room clean. To Heather, Sharon, and Maria, I leave memories of our friendship. To my mom and dad, I leave my respect for their standards and my sincere love and thanks. To the upcoming Seniors, I leave the ability to form class unity, as the Class of '88 has, and to Gateway Christian School, I leave the unforgettable Class of '88.

I, Walker Lambert, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to the upcoming Sophomore Class the experience of the Research Paper. To Mrs. Riggs, I leave all my dictado, sustitucion, and respondas. To Mr. Giles, I leave my thanks for helping us believe in ourselves (even when we didn't play our best). And to Mr. Wright I leave the thrill of victory (maybe next year; those bats have hits in them somewhere).

I, Tommy Powell, do leave this institution with a greater love for my Lord then when I first came. I also leave the station wagon to my sister Beth and the best of luck in high school to my other sister Sharon. I leave Wayne Speelman my title "Class Clown," and my NOID collection. To Mr. and Mrs. Riggs, I leave the best of luck in Spain, and to Mr. Giles, I just leave.

I, Ernie Spinella, being of sound mind and PERFECT BODY (?) do hereby challenge the upcoming Seniors to have a better year than we had (if that is possible). To Gary, I leave my reputation of breaking up with girls. To Mike Hudgins, I leave my "great" basketball ability. To Wayne, I leave my great ability to dunk a basketball. To Jennifer, I leave all the great memories of the fun times we spent together, (with many more in the future).

I, Tammy Watkins, do hereby give my love and thanks to Walker for always being there. To Susan Harrison, I leave my POM POMS (take good care of them! Ha! Ha!). To the Class of '89, I encourage you to do the best you can do and be all you can be for the Lord. To mom and dad, I LOVE YOU!!!

I, Danny Williams, being of warped mind and body, do hereby leave my appreciation to all the people who made the 13 years at Gateway worth remembering. To the Juniors, I leave my thanks for being great. And to anyone with 3 days experience and at least a Fisher-Price Camera, I leave the job as yearbook photographer.

Life In Third Grade

Mrs. Christalina Jones

Third Grade is one of the most exciting elementary years. Students' minds are continually challenged. They learn to use skills they have gained in previous years. Third graders study Bible, Math, Reading, Spelling, Penmanship, Language, History, and Science. They also learn how to reason and draw conclusions for themselves. They learn a great deal about responsibility and initiative — hopefully. It really is a whole new world. My third grade class this year has risen to the challenge and together we have had an exciting and memorable year.

YEARBOOK

Mr. Postlewaite — Advisor

Ernie — layout technician

Stefan — editor, layout advisor

Picas, rulers, erasers, layouts . . . work, work, work . . . problems, challenges, and difficulties. These are some of the many things faced by this year's yearbook staff. The staff, concentrating together, worked on making THE LATCH '88 one of Gateway's best yearbooks. Many extra hours of time and effort have been spent on developing THE LATCH '88. As editor, I commend this year's small staff for the accomplishments they made. Congratulations on THE LATCH '88.

1988
SENIOR CLASS WEDDING

A wedding? Yes, a wedding. This year's Senior class sponsored the first mock wedding at Gateway. The project, assigned in Family Living Class, was for the class to get first hand experience of what goes into the making of a wedding. Invitations were sent, music selections were chosen, reception plans were arranged, and decorations were made. The class operated on a slim budget of zero dollars but managed to carry through with a successful ceremony. Most of all the Senior class received A's for their project.

SPORTS BANQUET

After hugging Mrs. Wright, Beth Harris receives the trophy for the best Christian testimony in cheerleading.

Seniors Ernie and Tammy accept many awards.

EIGHTY-EIGHT

Caricature of the winningest baseball coach in Gateway history.
Parents were invited to witness the honoring of their athletes.
The ODD couple?

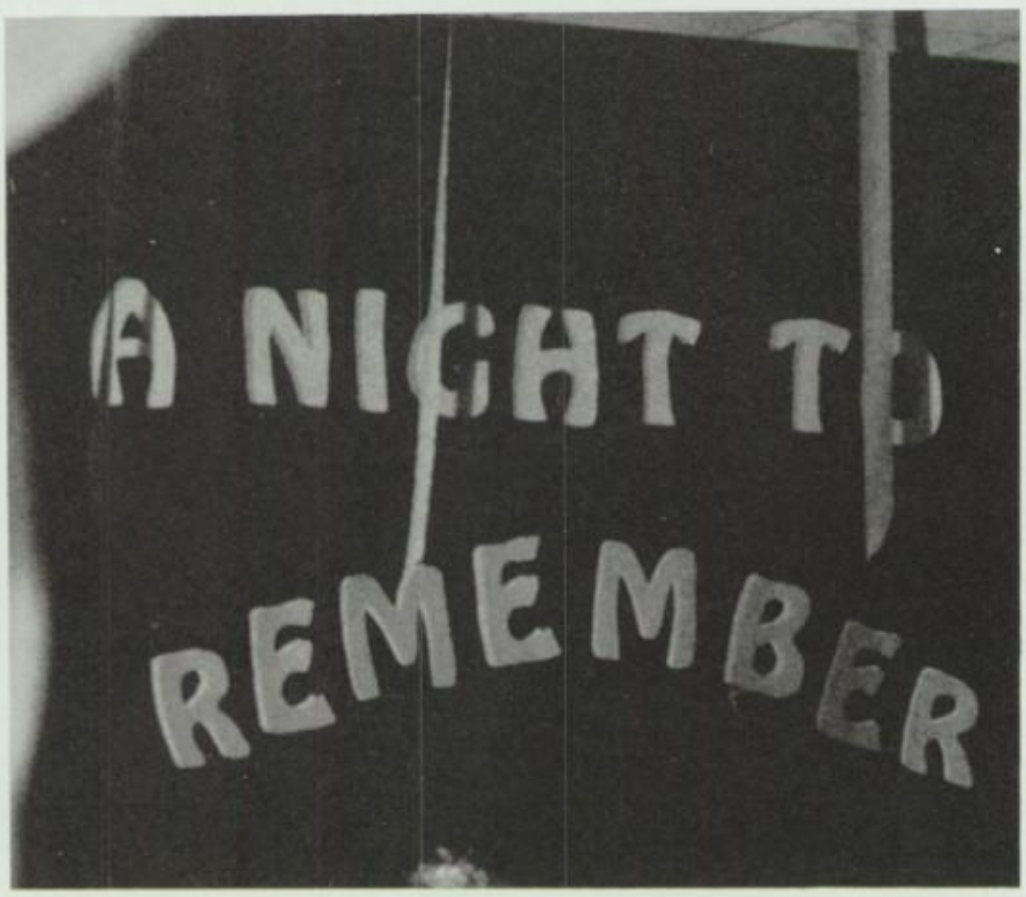
Juniors Lisa and Susan accept the best offensive and defensive awards in softball.

JUNIOR

As tradition holds, Sophomores serve those at the banquet.

For entertainment, the Juniors put on the skit "Blind Date." Juniors and Seniors toast to a great evening.

SENIOR

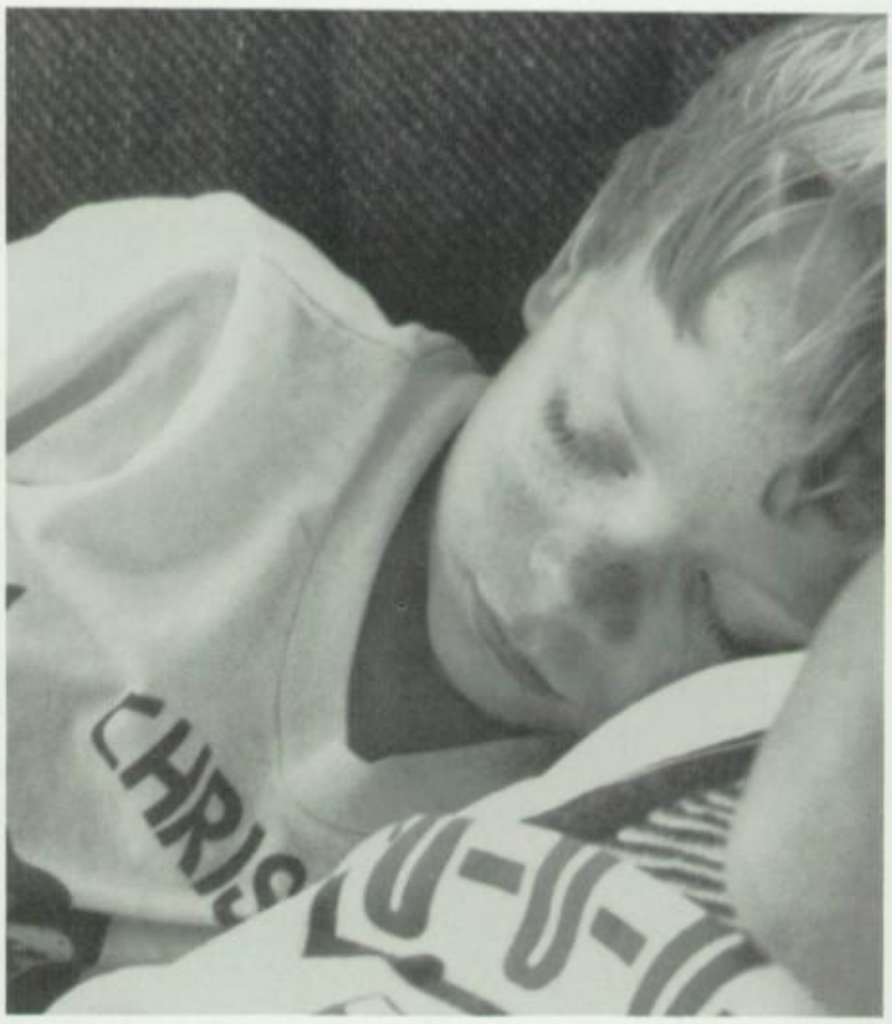


Glenn, Gary, and Donnie compete for the "Big Mouth" award.

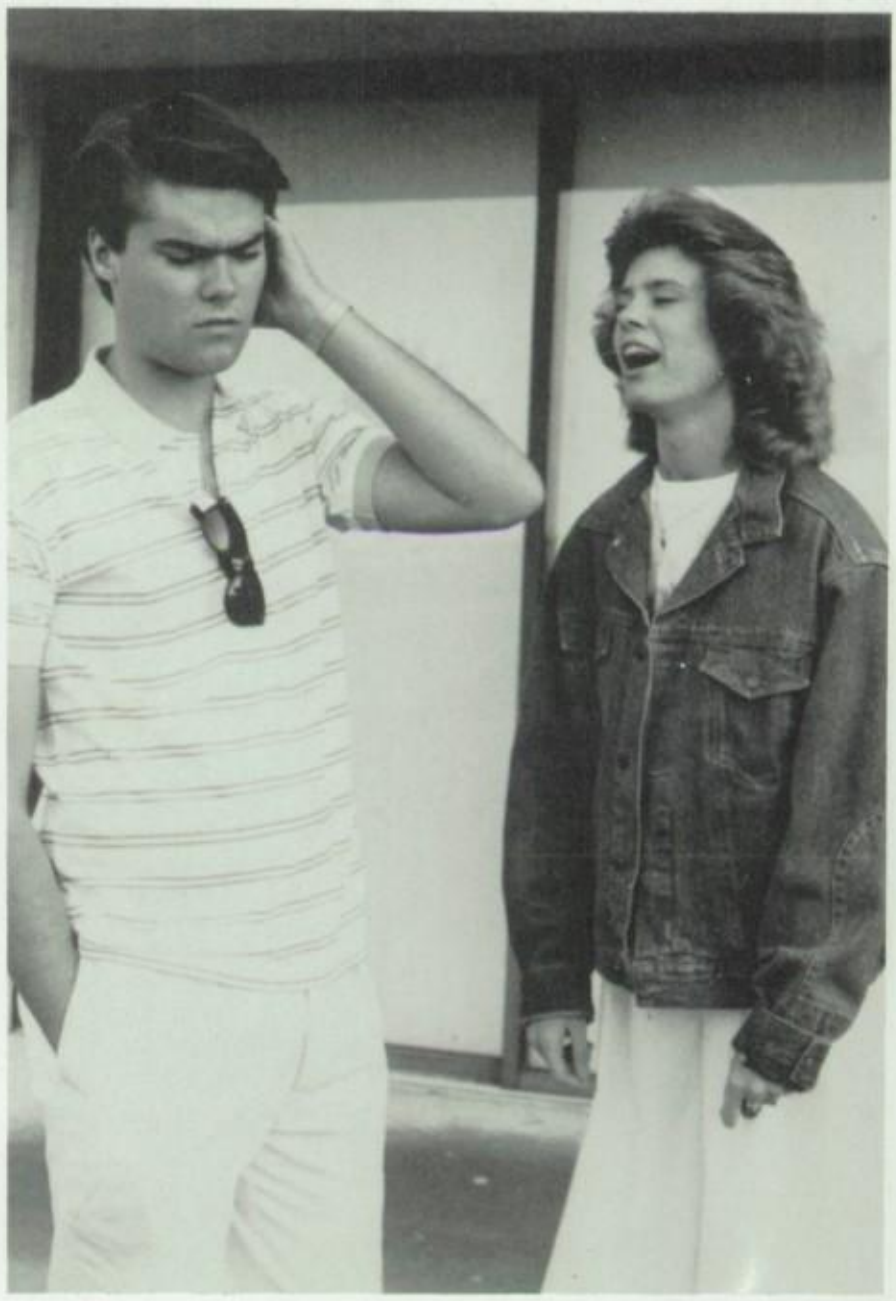
Even the food was great! Right Gary? Decisions. Decisions. Hmm . . . Which one?

SENIOR TRIP

Loading for Florida Boy, What a long ride!



Arrival brings happiness.
Tammy sings while Walker . . . listens?



SUN AND FUN IN FLORIDA

With so much to do, Seniors had little time to sleep.

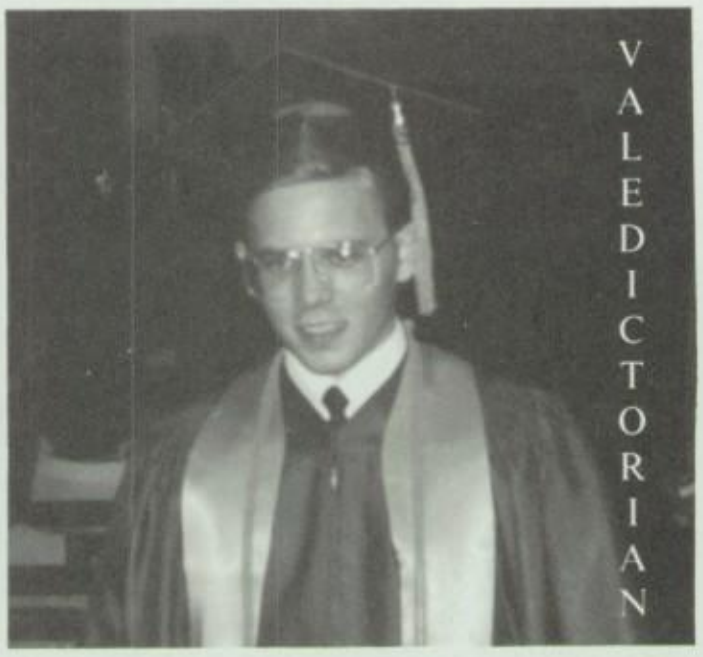
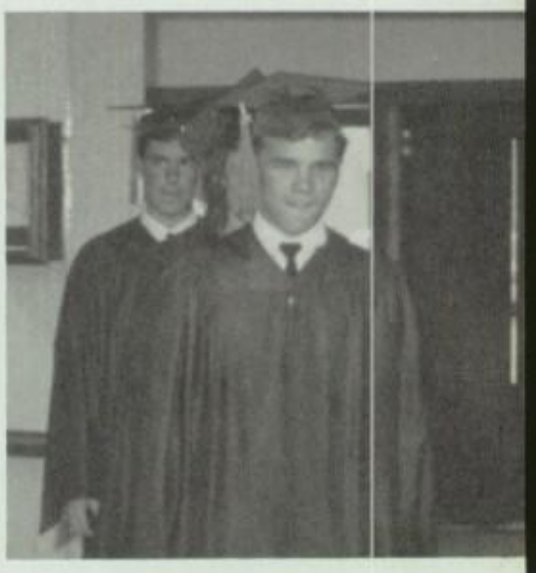
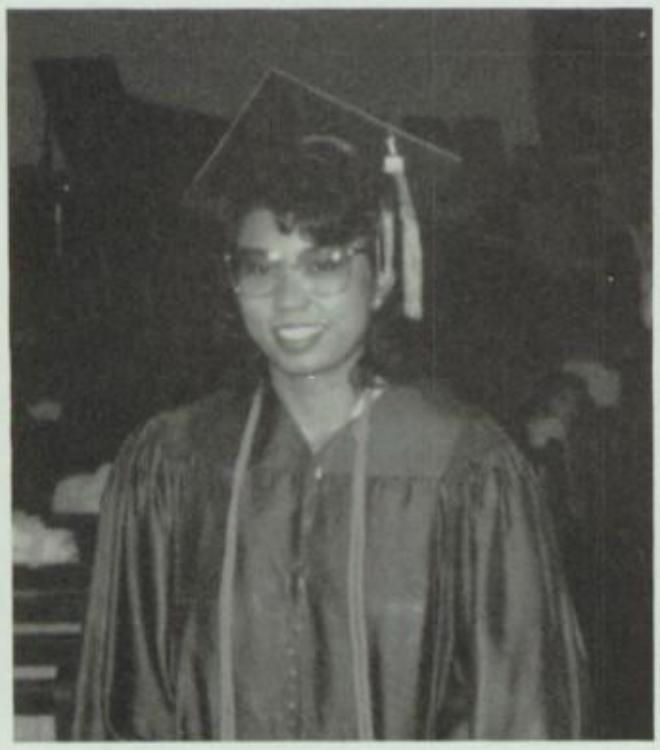
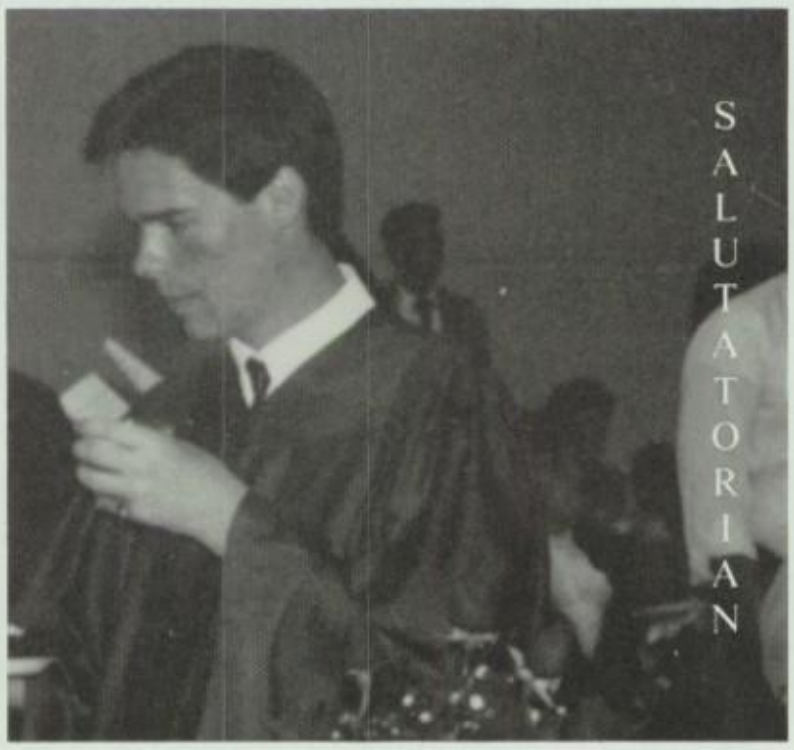
GRADUATION



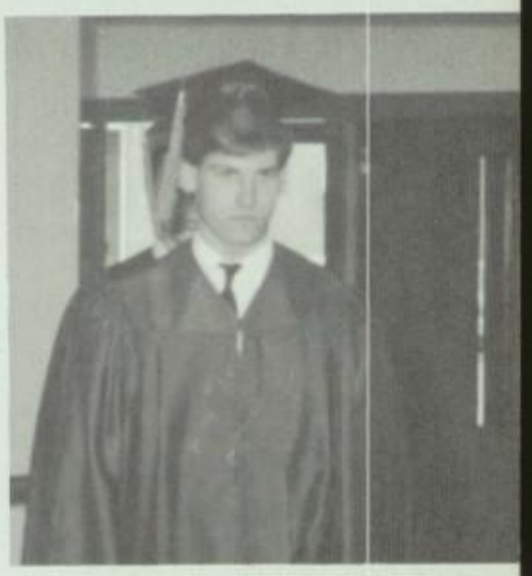
VALEDICTORIAN

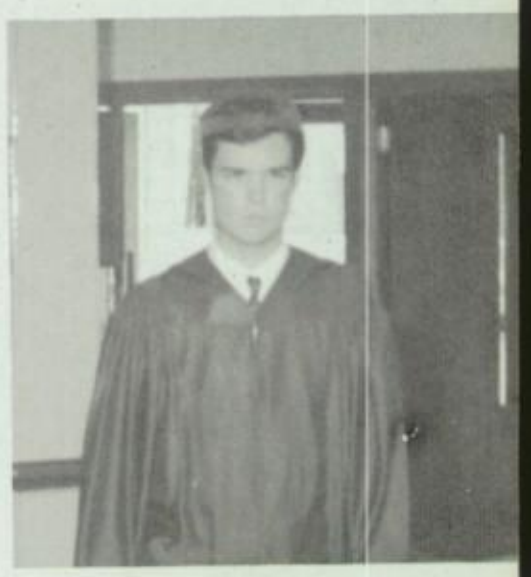


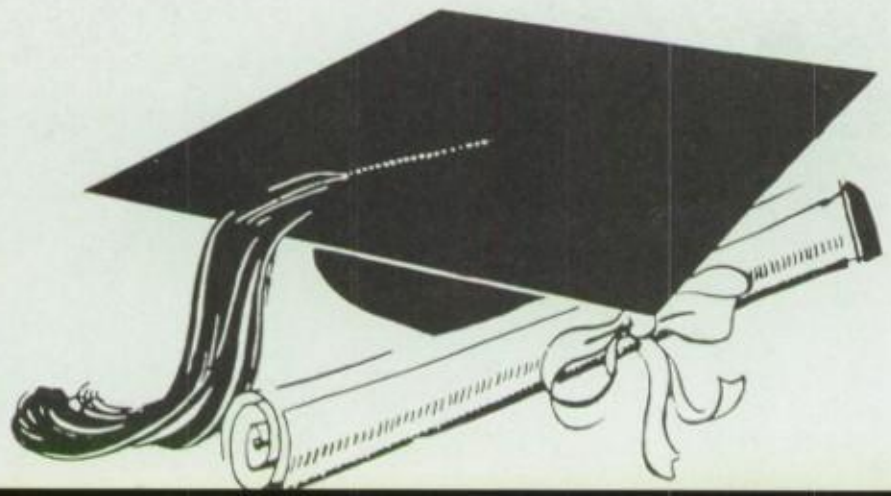




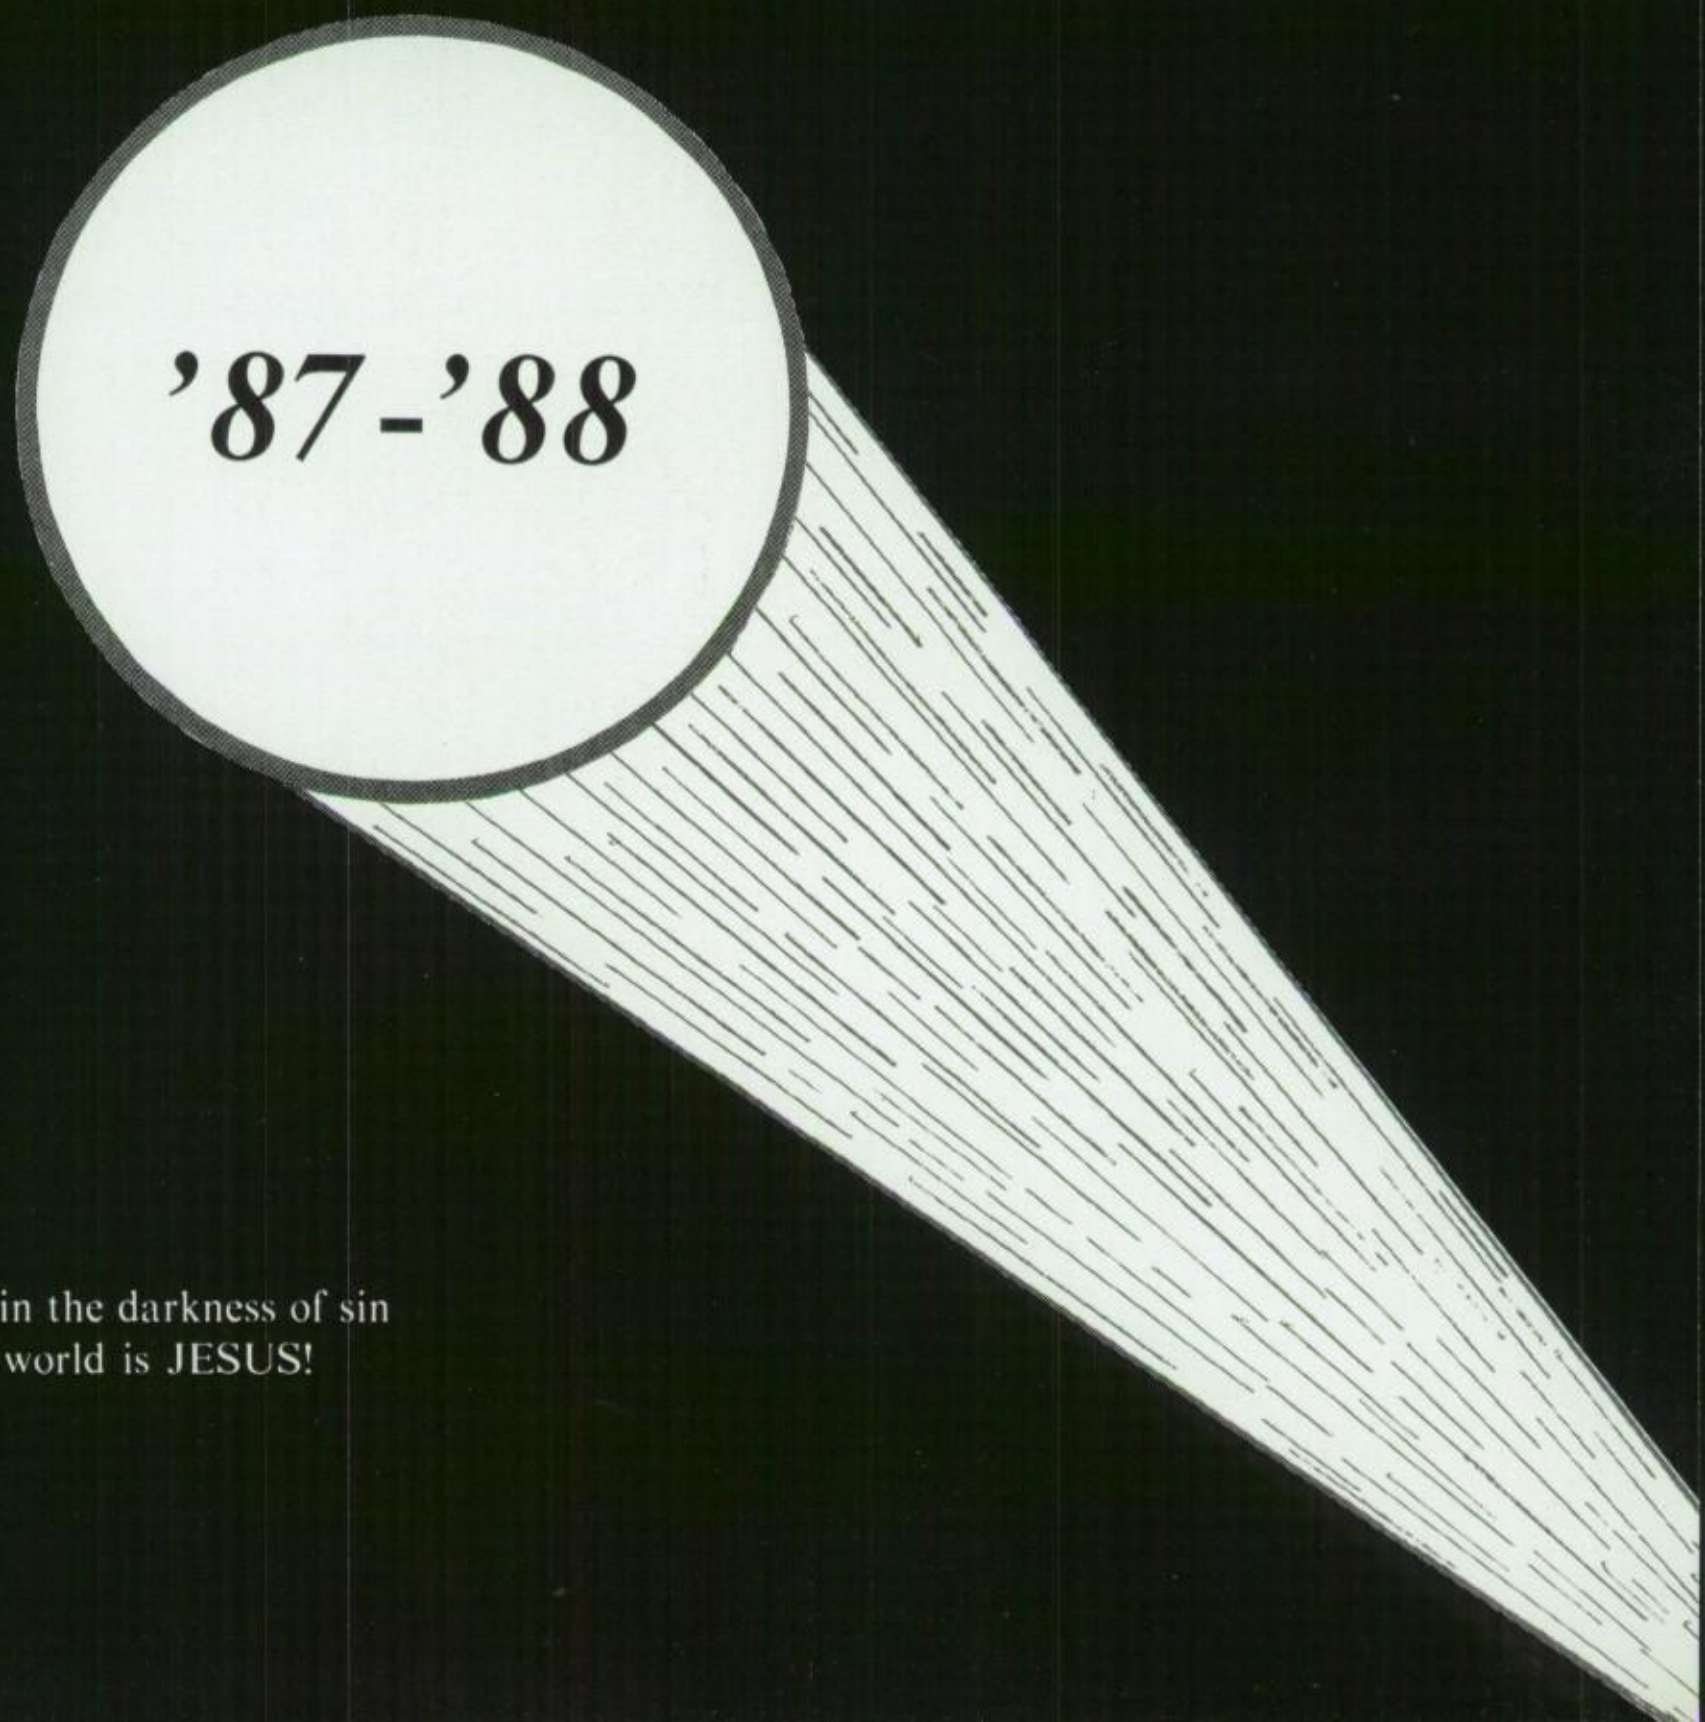
SALUTATORIAN







As the light goes out on the 1987-'88 school year, it is our hope that the memories of this past year will be forever "spotlighted" in our hearts and minds.



he whole world is lost in the darkness of sin
. The LIGHT of the world is JESUS!

SENIOR FAREWELL
"RAP"sody of '88

Hey! Everybody, we're the B Flat singers
We're gonna RAP a while about our Seniors
We know our rappin', it ain't too great
But then we're only rappin' 'bout the Class of '88.

We're gonna rap about Stefan, Jenny,
Brian and Danny,
Tommy, Amy, Ernie, . . . Walker and Tammy.
Come on everybody 'cause here we go . . .
Join us in a chorus of Heidi-Heidi-Ho!

Heidi-Heidi-Heidi-Ho . . .
Seniors went to Orlando.

Got on the bus and they all were cryin',
Looked around . . . and where was Brian.
Brian, he was full of woe . . .
'Cause his girl, Beth, said he couldn't go.

They took his shoes and his wallet too . . .
I'd have caught on, how about you.
But Danny, he did play the fool . . .
They threw him in the swimmin' pool.

Heidi-Heidi-Heidi-Ho . . .
Gateway Seniors on the go.

All you boys better run and hide . . .
Jenny wants to become a bride!
I've never seen nothin' quite so mean . . .
As her face on the cover of that magazine.

Ask Tammy why her face is red all the time . . .
Since she met that Sea World Mime.
The whales did swim and the dolphins splash . . .
But that wasn't nothin' next to Tammy's flash.

Heidi-Heidi-Heidi- Ho . . .
Into the future now we go . . .

Tommy, he was so disgraced . . .
At SACS he could only take third place.
So years from now when he's old and gray . . .
He'll still be workin' on his Macrame.

Walker may look big and bold . . .
But Tammy will run things in that household.
Of course those wedding bells may never chime . . .
One will kill the other before that time.

Heidi-Heidi-Heidi-Ho . . .
Gateway Seniors on the go.

Stefan, he worked hard and long . . .
To master church music and play his song.
King of the keyboard, he was dubbed . . .
Plays Saturday nights at the Honky-Tonk Club.

Amy's always smilin', pretty as can be . . .
Wanted to become a Secretary.
But her life was cut short just as quick as a sneeze . . .
Died unexpected of the poochy lip disease.

Heidi-Heidi-Heidi-Ho . . .
Gateway Seniors on the go.

Ernie, he's had plenty of strife . . .
Ended up married to 15 wives.
To Salt Lake City he did have to flee . . .
'Cause Virginia don't allow no polygamy!

Heidi-Heidi-Heidi-Ho
Gateway Seniors on the go.
